Corporate Philosophy and Vision

Corporate Philosophy

Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone

Since its founding, the SoftBank Group has always remained true to its goal of accelerating the Information Revolution to make the world a happier place.

Just what is happiness?

Some might say happiness is to love and be loved in return, or to make the most of each day. Others might derive happiness from self-expression. Still, others might find happiness in something as simple as a smile. Above all, the SoftBank Group equates happiness with inspiration. Through our business, we strive to bring emotional meaning and happiness to lives. In everything we do, we aim to drive the Information Revolution and build a more connected, empowered, and joyful world. This unchanging kokorozashi (mission) is encapsulated in our philosophy, Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone.

Humankind stands on the cusp of an era of dramatically increasing computing performance, and we are getting ever closer to an age of super-intelligence that will surpass human ability. Our mission is to harness the raw, unlimited power of the Information Revolution and channel it in a direction that makes people happier. This aspiration will continue to drive our organization toward further growth for many years to come.

Vision

To become a corporate group that powers the world's most essential technologies

To achieve our vision, we aim to build a more connected, empowered and joyful world by accelerating human progress through technology. We remain focused on advancing AI and driving the Information Revolution by investing in the world's most essential technologies and innovative business models.

The SoftBank Group's aim

To Our Shareholders

I am pleased to notify you of the 45th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

At the FY2023 General Meeting of Shareholders, SoftBank Group Corp. ("SBG" or the "Company") declared a shift to the counteroffensive. In FY2024, we ramped up this offensive, with projects that had been in the works behind the scenes gradually taking shape.

Artificial intelligence ("AI") is evolving every day, and is being adapted rapidly by business and by people in their daily lives. Going further, artificial super intelligence ("ASI"), greatly exceeds human wisdom. Part of our mission is to enrich the future of humanity through the realization of ASI. To accomplish this, SBG, as a key player in the new era, is building a strategic structure centered on OpenAI, the leader in cutting-edge AI technology, and Arm Holdings plc ("Arm"), which has outstanding semiconductor design capabilities.

In January 2025, we announced the Stargate Project, which will build AI infrastructure in collaboration with OpenAI, Oracle, and other partners. Investment in the project, which will include funding from co-investors, is expected to total $500.0 billion. Then in February, we entered into a partnership with OpenAI to develop and market Advanced AI called Cristal intelligence[*1], which is customized specifically for each company. In order to accelerate these efforts, we have also agreed to establish a joint venture company.

Then, in March, we announced significant follow-on investments in OpenAI to strengthen our leadership in the AI revolution. Furthermore, amid the spread of the latest Armv9, Arm is on a steady growth trajectory as an indispensable platform in a wide range of fields, including data centers, mobile devices, automobiles, and IoT. Many world-leading tech companies such as Microsoft, Google, Amazon Web Services, and NVIDIA have adopted Arm's services, highlighting its reliability.

Amid these active investments in the AI field, NAV[*2], one of our most important performance metrics, was ¥25.7 trillion, and LTV[*3] was 18.0%. As for financial results, we recorded a consolidated net income[*4] of ¥1,153.3 billion and investment gains of ¥3,701.1 billion. SoftBank Vision Funds segment saw the value of its portfolio increase due to valuation gains for major AI portfolio companies.

Under our corporate philosophy, Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone, SBG will adhere to its financial policy[*5] involving LTV and cash position while also striving to create new value and improve NAV through investments and activities that leverage the use of AI. I would like to ask all shareholders for their support.

June 3, 2025

(Notes) 1. "Cristal intelligence" is a provisional name and not the official designation.
2. Net Asset Value = equity value of holdings - adjusted interest-bearing debt
3. Loan-to-Value is the ratio of liabilities to holding assets, which is calculated as adjusted net interest-bearing debt divided by equity value of holdings.
4. Net income attributable to owners of the parent
5. SBG manages LTV below 25% in normal times in financial markets, with an upper threshold of 35% even in times of emergency. Concurrently, SBG secures a cash position sufficient to cover bond redemptions for at least the next two years.

3. Attending Online

On the day of the Meeting, you can ask questions and exercise your voting rights on the SBG General Meeting of Shareholders Portal shown on the right while viewing the online presentation. You will be treated as having attended the Meeting in the same way as if you actually came to the venue and attended the Meeting, in keeping with the Companies Act.

1) How to attend on the day of the Meeting

Access the Meeting Day Attendance page on the SBG General Meeting of Shareholders Portal mentioned above, and click “Attend” from 9 a.m. on the day of the Meeting (June 27, 2025). (Even if you have changed your temporary password when you exercised your voting rights through the Internet in advance as described in 2. above, the temporary password will remain unchanged when you attend the Meeting online.)

2) Exercising voting rights

- You can exercise your voting rights from the opening of the Meeting until the time of voting on the proposals, on the Meeting Day Attendance page. Please note that once you have exercised your voting rights, you cannot change the content of the vote.
- If you exercise your voting rights in advance in writing or online, and then attend the Meeting online and exercise your voting rights on the day of the Meeting (you will be treated as having attended the Meeting online if you access the Meeting Day Attendance page described in 1) above from 9 a.m. on June 27, 2025), any prior exercise of voting rights shall be null and void (if you attend the Meeting online on the day of the Meeting but do not exercise your voting rights, your prior exercise of voting rights shall be valid). If you attend the Meeting online and exercise your voting rights on the day of the Meeting, and if there is a proposal that you do not vote for or against, this will be treated as an abstention on the proposal and any prior exercise of voting rights shall be null and void.
- If you do not exercise your voting rights in advance, and attend the Meeting online on the day of the Meeting but do not exercise your voting rights, your vote will be treated as an abstention on all proposals. If you attend the Meeting online and exercise your voting rights on the day of the Meeting, and if there is a proposal that you do not vote for or against, this will be treated as an abstention on the proposal.

3) Questions

- You can ask questions on the Meeting Day Attendance page. You can enter up to 200 characters in the text box.
- Please note that there is limited time for questions and answers, so questions are limited to one per person; we are not able to accept or answer all questions; and we are not able to answer certain questions depending on their content, such as questions that do not pertain to the agenda of the Meeting.
- SBG plans to publish questions asked by shareholders on the day of the Meeting on SBG's website, after the Meeting unless there are impediments to publication, such as the possible violation of personal privacy.

4) Motions

Please be advised that all motions from shareholders attending online will not be accepted for submission, including those related to the procedures or agenda items for the Meeting. Shareholders wishing to submit a motion or participate in the voting of a motion are kindly requested to consider attending the Meeting at the venue.

5) Environment for attending online

Please refer to the website shown on the right for the recommended environment for the SBG General Meeting of Shareholders Portal. Please be aware that you will be responsible for telecommunications equipment and all costs required for attending online.

https://jp.vcube.com/support/virtual-shareholders-meeting/requirements/

6) Other important matters

- Please note that Japanese is the only language available for attending online.
- Depending on the telecommunications environment, there is a possibility of communication failures including disruption of video or sound, or temporary interruption of live presentation of the Meeting. Please note that SBG cannot be held responsible for any disadvantages caused by such communication failures to shareholders who attend online.

4. Attending on the day of the Meeting

No advance application is required. Please refer to the map at the end of this document for the location of the venue for the General Meeting of Shareholders, which has changed from the previous meeting.

When you attend the Meeting in person, please bring the enclosed voting form and submit it at the reception.

If you attend the Meeting in person as well as exercise your voting rights online as described in “3. Attending Online” above, you will be treated as having attended the Meeting online.

The venue will be filmed by camera on the day of the Meeting. In consideration of the privacy of the shareholders in attendance, filming will be limited to the screen and the vicinity of the Board of Directors’ seats. However, please understand that there may be unavoidable cases where shareholders in attendance may be filmed.

5. Asking Questions in Advance

From 9 a.m. JST, June 12, 2025, until 5:45 p.m. JST, June 26, 2025, you may ask questions regarding the agenda of the Meeting through the SBG General Meeting of Shareholders Portal. Matters of high interest to our shareholders will be addressed at the Meeting. SBG plans to publish questions asked in advance by shareholders on the “The 45th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders” page of SBG’s website after the Meeting unless there are impediments to publication, such as the possible violation of personal privacy.

6. Viewing the Live Presentation

A live presentation of the Meeting can be viewed by accessing the “The 45th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders” page of SBG’s website below beginning at 10 a.m. JST, June 27, 2025. Please note that viewing the live presentation will not null and void voting rights exercised in advance in writing or online as described in 1. and 2. above.

Viewing the Meeting after the conclusion of the live presentation

The Meeting will be available on video on demand through SBG’s website.

*On-demand video of the Business Report will be available only for one year from June 27, 2025.

As stated above, at the Meeting, you can exercise your voting rights in advance in writing (sending by mail) and via the Internet, and you can attend on the day of the Meeting at the venue and via the Internet.

The operation of the Meeting may change due to such factors as telecommunications issues involving live presentation and online attendance. If any change is made in the operation of the Meeting, notice will be given on the Company’s website.

Proposal 1: Appropriation of Surplus

The fundamental policy of SBG is to focus on investing actively for sustained growth as well as returning profits to shareholders, while maintaining a sound financial status. Under this policy, SBG, in principle, is to provide dividends twice a year, an interim dividend and a year-end dividend. Accordingly, the year-end dividend for FY2024 is proposed as indicated below.

As an interim dividend of ¥22.00 per share has been distributed, the total dividend payout for this fiscal year will be ¥44.00 per share.

1	Type of dividend property: Cash
2	Matter concerning allotment of dividend property to shareholders and its total amount: ¥22.00 per common share of SoftBank Group Corp., for a total of ¥31,627,118,732
3	Effective date of dividend of surplus: June 30, 2025

Proposal 2: Election of Nine Board Directors

The terms of office of the present nine (9) Board Directors will expire at the conclusion of this Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. It is proposed that nine (9) Board Directors be elected.

Jan. 1997	Co-Founder and General Partner, DCM Ventures (to present)
Jun. 2022	Board Director, SBG (to present)

Significant concurrent position

Co-Founder and General Partner, DCM Ventures

Reason for nomination and expected role

At Apple Computer, Inc., Mr. David Chao was instrumental in the company's rapid growth and also managed the company's startup investment portfolio in the U.S. At U.S. McKinsey & Company, he worked in the telecommunications and software industries, where he was involved in technology, marketing, and financial strategy development projects. Thereafter, having co-founded Japan Communications Inc., where he served as Chief Financial Officer, Chief Technology Officer, and Director, before becoming Co-Founder and General Partner of DCM Ventures, he has accumulated extensive knowledge and experience in investment, business management, and technology.

At SBG, Mr. Chao has offered advice on the Group's long-term strategies and expressed views from the standpoint of SBG's minority shareholders, playing a vital role in decision-making processes at the Board, and has significantly contributed to the improvement of enterprise value of SBG through the supervisory function.

Based on the above, the Board would like to elect Mr. Chao as an External Board Director nominee for the further growth of the Group.

(Notes) 1. The age of each candidate is as of the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. "Term of office" refers to the term of office as of the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. A corporate reorganization was undertaken in August 2023, pursuant to which Arm Holdings Limited, a former subsidiary of Arm Limited, acquired all the issued ordinary shares of Arm Limited, thereby making it a wholly-owned subsidiary. Subsequently, Arm Holdings Limited changed its name to Arm Holdings plc and was listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market through an initial public offering on September 14, 2023.

4. Mr. Masayoshi Son, a candidate for Board Director, concurrently holds the post of the managing partner of Son Assets Management, LLC with whom SBG has a business relationship, such as for office management. He also concurrently holds the post of President of the Masason Foundation with whom SBG has concluded an agreement on secondment.

5. SBG has concluded an agreement on a co-investment program with restricted rights to receive distributions, with Mr. Masayoshi Son, a candidate for Board Director, and MASA USA LLC, which is controlled by him.

6. SBG has concluded an agreement with Arm Holdings plc, where Mr. Rene Haas, a candidate for Board Director, serves as CEO and Director, to determine the scope of its tax liabilities.

7. SBG's subsidiary has concluded a license agreement for semiconductor research and development with a subsidiary of Arm Holdings plc, where Mr. Rene Haas, a candidate for Board Director, serves as CEO and Director.

8. SBG's subsidiary has concluded various agreements with investors in Ampere Computing Holdings LLC, which includes a subsidiary of Arm Holdings plc, where Mr. Rene Haas, a candidate for Board Director, serves as CEO and Director.

9. Mr. Kenneth A. Siegel, a candidate for Board Director, concurrently holds a managing partner post at Morrison & Foerster Gaikokuho Jimu Bengoshi Jimusho, and a post of Board Director, Member of Executive Committee at Morrison & Foerster LLP. SBG has transactions including legal/advisory engagement with the firm.

10. SBG has made limited partner investments in the funds managed by DCM Ventures, where Mr. David Chao, a candidate for Board Director, serves as Co-Founder and General Partner. However, this capital contribution is extremely immaterial, accounting for less than 2% of the total amount managed by DCM Ventures.

11. Mr. David Chao, a candidate for Board Director, is a Board Member of Plenty Unlimited Inc., which is a specified related party of SBG, and a Board Member of Skylo Technologies Inc.

12. SBG has designated candidates for Board Directors, Mr. Masami Iijima, Dr. Yutaka Matsuo, Ms. Keiko Erikawa and Mr. David Chao, as Independent Officers in accordance with the stipulations of Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc., and has filed them with the Tokyo Stock Exchange. If they are reappointed, SBG will continue to designate them as Independent Officers and report to the Exchange accordingly.

13. When performing their duties as Board Directors, in order to have them perform their duties as expected and enable SBG to employ talented personnel, it is stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation that SBG may conclude an agreement with Board Directors (excluding executive board directors, etc.) to limit the liability for damages to the extent specified therein. SBG has concluded an agreement with Mr. Masami Iijima, Dr. Yutaka Matsuo, Ms. Keiko Erikawa, Mr. Kenneth A. Siegel and Mr. David Chao to limit the liability for damages. With regard to this proposal, subject to the approval of election of Mr. Masami Iijima, Dr. Yutaka Matsuo, Ms. Keiko Erikawa, Mr. Kenneth A. Siegel and Mr. David Chao, SBG will continue an agreement with each of them on the same terms and conditions.

14. SBG has concluded a directors and officers liability insurance (D&O insurance) contract that covers all Board Directors, as stipulated in Article 430-3, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. If this proposal is approved as it was originally proposed, and each candidate assumes office as Board Director, they will be insured under the insurance contract. Damages caused as a result of the insured Board Directors assuming responsibilities regarding the execution of their duties or receiving claims pertaining to the pursuit of such responsibilities will be covered. However, there are certain exemptions for compensation, such as damages arising from acts of the insured committed with awareness that they violate laws and regulations. The premiums are paid by SBG, including riders. Therefore, the insured do not bear the actual premiums. SBG will renew this insurance contract during the term of office of each candidate on December 1, 2025.

Proposal 4: Revision of Remuneration in the Form of Stock Options for Directors

1. Reason for the proposal and reason for considering such remuneration to be appropriate

The remuneration in the form of stock options for the Company's Directors (including outside Directors; the same shall apply hereinafter in this proposal) was approved at the 38th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 20, 2018, which set the amount of remuneration relating to stock acquisition rights to be allotted as stock options at an annual maximum of 5 billion yen (calculated by multiplying the fair value of each stock acquisition right (which were derived by using the Black-Scholes model or other methods) by the number of stock acquisition rights allotted to Directors; the same shall apply hereinafter in this proposal), and this has continued to date. This proposal seeks to add provisions in line with amendments pursuant to the enforcement of the Act Partially Amending the Companies Act (Act No. 70 of 2019) and the Ministerial Ordinance Revising a Part of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act, etc. (Ministry of Justice Order No. 52 of 2020; hereinafter collectively referred to as the "2019 Amendments to the Companies Act"), which stipulate matters to be resolved by the general meeting of shareholders when granting stock options as remuneration to directors. Accordingly, this proposal seeks re-approval of the details defined in the resolution of the 38th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, with additional descriptions included in conjunction with the 2019 Amendments to the Companies Act. In addition, while maintaining the upper limit of 5 billion yen per year, this proposal aims to enhance the effectiveness of stock options as incentives for improving the Company's business performance and increasing corporate value. Specifically, as outlined in "2. Details of the stock acquisition rights" below, it enables the flexible setting of conditions by the Board of Directors as necessary by making it possible to set certain performance conditions or staged exercise conditions for exercising stock options, and allows the amount of assets to be contributed upon exercise of stock acquisition rights for share-based stock options to include, in addition to the conventional 1 yen, an option not requiring a payment of money, among other adjustments. Furthermore, when issuing stock acquisition rights, in addition to cases where Directors are granted stock acquisition rights without requiring payment, there may also be cases where remuneration in the same amount as the payment amount is granted to the Directors, and stock acquisition rights are acquired by offsetting the claim for such remuneration against the payment amount for such stock acquisition rights.

Moreover, the maximum number of stock acquisition rights to be issued as remuneration to Directors within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year shall be 50,000 units in total for both normal stock options and share-based stock options (with the number of shares underlying the stock acquisition rights being 5,000,000 shares of common stock). This takes into account the stock split implemented on June 28, 2019 at a ratio of 1:2, and based on the resolution at the 38th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the maximum number of shares subject to the stock options to be issued within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year is set at 5,000,000 common shares, with no changes to this upper limit. Further, remuneration for Directors under this proposal shall, as before, not include the salaries of employees concurrently serving as Directors.

While the current number of the Company's Directors is nine (five of whom are External Directors), the number of Directors subject to this proposal shall be nine (including five External Directors), subject to the approval of Proposal 2 as originally proposed.

The Company has established a policy for determining individual remuneration for Directors, the outline of which is described in the business report, and this proposal is consistent with such policy and is considered appropriate.

2. Details of the stock acquisition rights

(1) Normal stock options

1) Aggregate number of stock acquisition rights and class and number of shares to be issued or transferred upon exercise thereof

Aggregate number of stock acquisition rights:

50,000 units shall be the maximum number of stock acquisition rights to be issued as remuneration for Directors within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year.

Class and number of shares subject to exercise of stock acquisition rights:

5,000,000 shares of common stock shall be the maximum number of shares to be granted upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights issued within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year. If the Number of Shares to be Granted (as defined below) is adjusted, the maximum number shall be the number obtained by multiplying the Number of Shares to be Granted after such adjustment by the aforementioned maximum number of the stock acquisition rights.

The number of shares subject to the exercise of each stock acquisition right shall be 100 shares (the "Number of Shares to be Granted").

However, if it is appropriate for the Company to adjust the Number of Shares to be Granted by conducting a stock split (including a gratis allotment of common stock of the Company) or a consolidation of shares, etc. for the common stock of the Company, the Company shall make such adjustment within the scope deemed reasonable.

2) Amount of assets to be contributed upon exercise of the stock acquisition rights

The amount of assets to be contributed upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the amount to be paid per share that can be granted subject to the exercise of the stock acquisition rights (the "Exercise Price") by the Number of Shares to be Granted.

The Exercise Price shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the average of the closing prices (collectively, the "Closing Price") of the common stock of the Company on the Tokyo Stock Exchange for each day (excluding days on which no trading was reported) of the month preceding the month to which the allotment date of the stock acquisition rights belongs by 1.05 (with any fraction of one yen rounded up).

However, if such amount is lower than the Closing Price on the allotment date of the stock acquisition rights (if trading is not conducted on such date, the Closing Price on the immediately preceding date), then the Closing Price on the allotment date of the stock acquisition rights shall be the Exercise Price.

If it is appropriate for the Company to adjust the Exercise Price by conducting a stock split (including a gratis allotment of common stock of the Company) or a consolidation of shares, etc. for the common stock of the Company, the Company shall make such adjustment within the scope deemed reasonable.

3) Period during which stock acquisition rights can be exercised

The period during which the stock acquisition rights can be exercised shall be a period of no more than ten years beginning on the day following the allotment date of each stock acquisition right, as decided at the General Meeting of Shareholders or the meeting of the Board of Directors that is to decide on the matters related to the subscription of each stock acquisition right.

4) Overview of qualification conditions for exercising stock acquisition rights

(i) In principle, a holder of stock acquisition rights (a "Rights Holder") may not exercise any unexercised stock acquisition rights if the Rights Holder loses his or her position as a Director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries that such Rights Holder held at the time of the grant of the stock acquisition rights.

(ii) A Rights Holder may not exercise any unexercised stock acquisition rights if the Rights Holder falls under any of the cases stated in sub-items from a. through e. below.

a. If any reason for disqualification as stipulated in Article 331, Paragraph 1, Items 3 or 4 of the Companies Act becomes applicable to the Rights Holder while he or she is a Director of the Company or its subsidiaries.
b. If the Rights Holder carries out a transaction as stipulated in Article 356, Paragraph 1, Item 1 of the Companies Act that competes with the interests of the Company or its subsidiaries while such Rights Holder is a Director of the Company or its subsidiaries without undertaking the procedures required under the Companies Act.
c. If the Rights Holder carries out a transaction as stipulated in Article 356, Paragraph 1, Item 2 or 3 of the Companies Act that causes conflicts with the interests of the Company or its subsidiaries while such Rights Holder is a Director of the Company or its subsidiaries without undertaking the procedures required under the Companies Act.
d. If the Rights Holder is sentenced to imprisonment or subject to a more severe penalty.
e. If the Rights Holder commits an act that is detrimental to the social credibility of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, or if the Rights Holder commits any other act that is deemed to be a breach of trust against the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates.

(iii) Any other matters related to qualification conditions for exercising stock acquisition rights shall be determined by the Board of Directors, which will decide on matters related to the subscription of each stock acquisition right.

5) Overview of other conditions for exercising stock acquisition rights

(i) Exercise conditions may be applied whereby the granted stock acquisition rights become exercisable in stages during the exercise period.

(ii) For the purpose of maximizing contributions to business performance improvements, performance conditions such as share price or revenue targets may be imposed.

(iii) Any other matters related to conditions for exercise stock acquisition rights shall be determined by the Board of Directors, which will decide on matters related to the subscription of each stock acquisition right.

6) Restriction on the acquisition of stock acquisition rights through transfer

Any acquisition of stock acquisition rights through transfer shall require the approval by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company.

7) Overview of circumstances in which the Company may acquire stock acquisition rights

(i) In the event that a merger agreement under which the Company is to become the disappearing company, a corporate split agreement (absorption-type split) or corporate split plan (incorporation-type split) under which the Company is to become the splitting company, a share exchange agreement under which the Company is to become a wholly-owned subsidiary, or a share transfer plan under which the Company is to become a wholly-owned subsidiary is approved at a General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (or, if such shareholder approval is not required, if such matter is resolved by the Board of Directors), the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(ii) In the event that a Rights Holder becomes unable to exercise all or part of his or her stock acquisition rights pursuant to the provisions of Item 4 above, the Company may acquire such stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(iii) In the event that the Rights Holder waives all or part of the stock acquisition rights he or she holds, the Company may acquire such stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(iv) In the event that the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company approves the acquisition of all shares subject to a class-wide call in accordance with Article 171, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(v) In the event that the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company approves a consolidation of shares regarding the class of shares subject to the exercise of the stock acquisition rights (limited to those generating fractions of less than one when multiplying the share unit number of said shares by the consolidation ratio), the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(vi) In the event that a request for the sale of shares by a special controlling shareholder is approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, the Company may acquire the stock acquisition rights free of charge on the arrival date separately determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

8) Other Matters

Other matters related to the stock acquisition rights shall be determined at the General Meeting of Shareholders or the meeting of the Board of Directors that is to decide on the matters related to the subscription of each stock acquisition right.

(2) Share-Based Stock Options

1) Aggregate number of stock acquisition rights and class and number of shares to be issued or transferred upon exercise thereof

Aggregate number of stock acquisition rights:

50,000 units shall be the maximum number of stock acquisition rights to be issued as remuneration for Directors within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year.

Class and number of shares subject to exercise of stock acquisition rights:

5,000,000 shares of common stock shall be the maximum number of shares to be granted upon the exercise of the stock acquisition rights issued within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year. If the Number of Shares to be Granted is adjusted, the maximum number shall be the number obtained by multiplying the Number of Shares to be Granted after such adjustment by the aforementioned maximum number of the stock acquisition rights.

The Number of Shares to be Granted shall be 100 shares.

However, if it is appropriate for the Company to adjust the Number of Shares to be Granted by conducting a stock split (including a gratis allotment of common stock of the Company) or a consolidation of shares, etc. for the common stock of the Company, the Company shall make such adjustment within the scope deemed reasonable.

2) Amount of assets to be contributed upon exercise of the stock acquisition rights

The amount of assets to be contributed upon the exercise of each stock acquisition right shall be the amount obtained by multiplying the Exercise Price by the Number of Shares to be Granted, and the Exercise Price shall be 1 yen.

However, the Company may also issue stock acquisition rights as remuneration for Directors, or in exchange for the payment of Director remuneration, without requiring any payment of money or contribution of assets as prescribed in Article 236, Paragraph 1, Item 3 of the Companies Act upon the exercise of such stock acquisition rights.

In the event that both stock acquisition rights with an Exercise Price of 1 yen and stock acquisition rights that do not require any payment of money or contribution of assets upon exercise are to be issued, the total number of such stock acquisition rights and the number of shares to be delivered upon exercise shall be within the maximum limits for the number of stock acquisition rights and shares specified in Item 1 above.

3) Period during which stock acquisition rights can be exercised

The period during which the stock acquisition rights can be exercised shall be a period of no more than ten years beginning on the day following the allotment date of each stock acquisition right, as decided at the General Meeting of Shareholders or the meeting of the Board of Directors that is to decide on the matters related to the subscription of each stock acquisition right.

4) Overview of qualification conditions for exercising stock acquisition rights

(i) In principle, a holder of stock acquisition rights (a “Rights Holder”) may not exercise any unexercised stock acquisition rights if the Rights Holder loses his or her position as a Director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries that such Rights Holder held at the time of the grant of the stock acquisition rights.

(ii) A Rights Holder may not exercise any unexercised stock acquisition rights if the Rights Holder falls under any of the cases stated in sub-items from a. through e. below.

a. If any reason for disqualification as stipulated in Article 331, Paragraph 1, Items 3 or 4 of the Companies Act becomes applicable to the Rights Holder while he or she is a Director of the Company or its subsidiaries.

b. 2 Overview of operations for this fiscal year

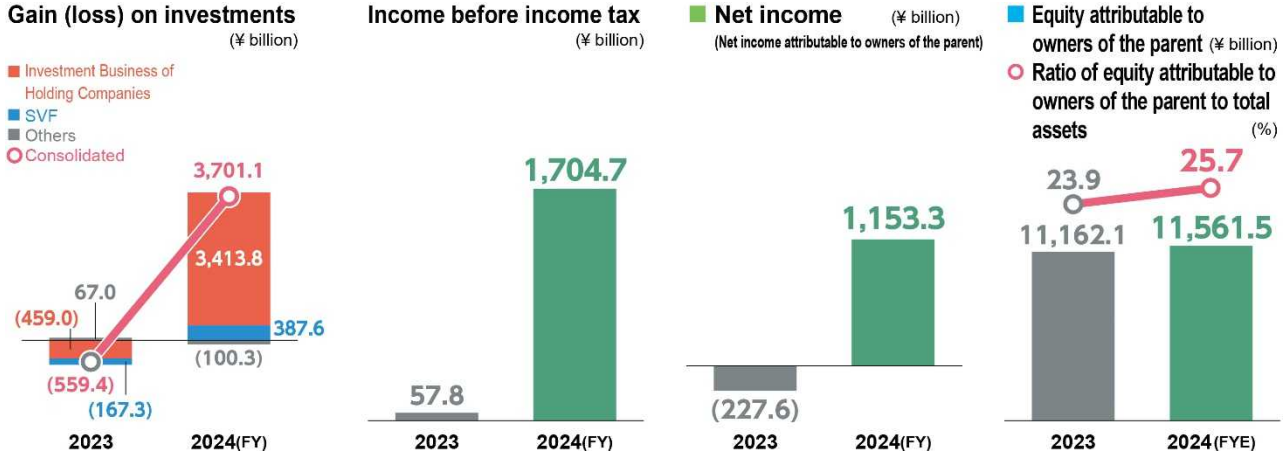
1) Results of operations

In FY2024, SBG recorded a consolidated investment gain of ¥3,701.1 billion. This was mainly driven by gains on investments of ¥3,413.8 billion at Investment Business of Holding Companies, reflecting higher share prices of Alibaba, T-Mobile, and Deutsche Telekom, among others. Gains on investments of ¥387.6 billion at SoftBank Vision Funds also contributed, which was mainly attributable to an increase in the fair value of portfolio companies such as Bytedance Ltd. and Coupang, Inc.

Income before income tax rose sharply year on year to ¥1,704.7 billion, despite a derivative loss (excluding gain or loss on investments) of ¥2,034.0 billion related to financing using Alibaba shares and Deutsche Telekom shares.[*1] As a result, net income attributable to owners of the parent turned positive for the first time in four years, reaching ¥1,153.3 billion. Accordingly, the ratio of equity attributable to owners of the parent to total assets (equity ratio) improved by 1.8 percentage points from the end of FY2023 to 25.7%.

As part of new AI initiatives, in January 2025 SBG announced the Stargate Project to build AI infrastructure in the U.S. for OpenAI,[*2] a U.S.-based AI research and development company. In March 2025, SBG agreed to make follow-on investments of up to $40.0 billion in OpenAI[*3] (excluding the $10.0 billion planned to be syndicated to co-investors, the Group's effective investment amount is expected to be up to $30.0 billion).

With respect to shareholder returns, while the Nikkei Stock Average experienced record declines and rebounds in early August 2024, SBG swiftly resolved to implement a share repurchase program of up to ¥500.0 billion, demonstrating its ability and intention to respond quickly and flexibly to market fluctuations. While adhering to existing financial policy involving LTV[*4] and cash position, SBG has been repurchasing its own shares, taking into account factors such as investment opportunities for sustainable growth and the level of NAV discount. As of the end of FY2024, SBG had repurchased a cumulative total of ¥237.0 billion of its own shares.



(Notes)
1. Prepaid forward contracts using Alibaba shares and collar transactions using Deutsche Telekom shares
2. OpenAI Inc. and its affiliates
3. SBG will invest in OpenAI Global, LLC, a for-profit subsidiary of OpenAI Inc. For details, please refer to the timely disclosure material titled “Announcement Regarding Follow-on Investments in OpenAI” dated April 1, 2025.
4. Loan-to-Value is the ratio of liabilities to holding assets, which is calculated as adjusted net interest-bearing debt divided by equity value of holdings. The equity value of holdings and adjusted net interest-bearing debt each exclude amounts to be settled at maturity or borrowings that are part of asset-backed finance. Additionally, the calculation of adjusted net interest-bearing debt excludes, from SBG’s consolidated figures, interest-bearing debt and cash and cash equivalents, etc. (including investments in bonds) attributable to entities managed on a self-financing basis, such as the listed subsidiaries SoftBank Corp. (including its subsidiaries) and Arm, as well as SVF 1, SVF 2, and LatAm Funds.

2) Results by reportable segment

Investment Business of Holding Companies

Main businesses

- Investment activities by SBG and its subsidiaries

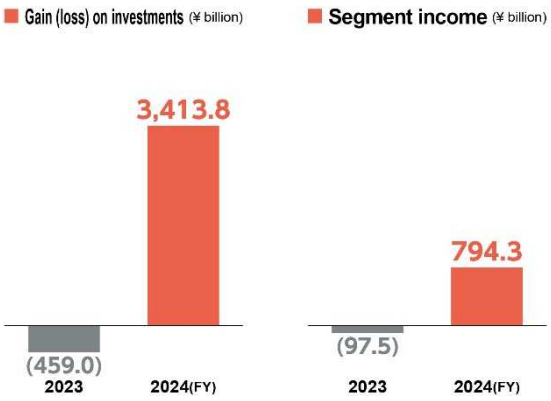
In FY2024, the segment recorded segment income of ¥794.3 billion. Gains on investments of ¥3,413.8 billion were posted from investments in Alibaba, T-Mobile, and Deutsche Telekom shares, owing to their share price increases. However, investment gains from Alibaba and Deutsche Telekom shares were offset by derivative losses (excluding gain or loss on investments). In addition, finance costs of ¥531.3 billion and selling, general and administrative expenses of ¥131.9 billion also impacted results.



SoftBank Vision Funds

Main businesses

- Investment activities by SVF1, SVF2 and LatAm Funds

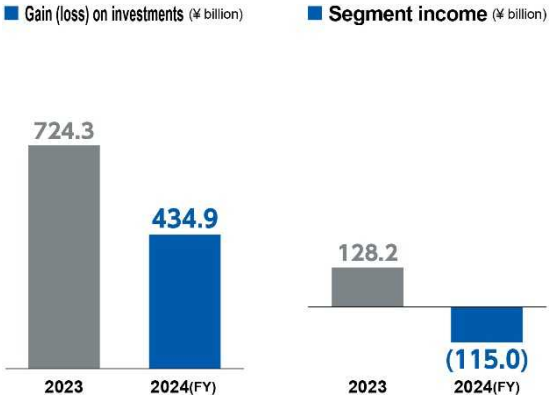
In FY2024, SoftBank Vision Funds recorded a segment loss of ¥115.0 billion. Although investment gains of ¥434.9 billion were recognized mainly due to an increase in the fair value of certain SVF1 portfolio companies, such as Bytedance Ltd. and Coupang, Inc., as the proportion of third-party interests in SVF1 is substantial, ¥491.9 billion was deducted as gains attributable to those third parties, leading to a segment loss. In FY2024, five portfolio companies were newly listed, bringing the cumulative public listings since inception to 55.



SoftBank

Main businesses

- Provision of mobile services, sale of mobile devices, and provision of broadband and solution services in Japan
- Advertising and commerce business and provision of payment services

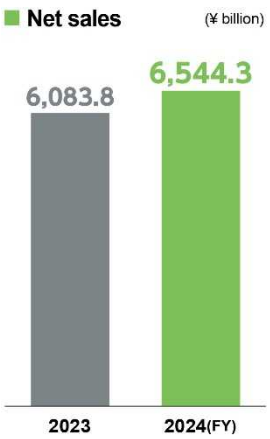
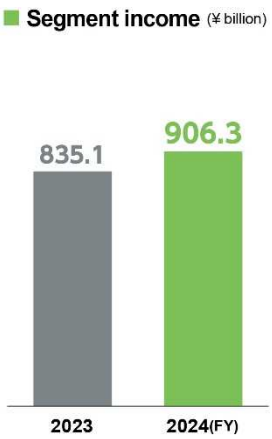
In FY2024, net sales increased by 7.6% year on year to ¥6,544.3 billion, and segment income also increased by 8.5% to ¥906.3 billion. This was driven by continued profit growth in the media & EC, consumer, and enterprise businesses, along with the PayPay Corporation group, which plays a central role in the financial business, turning profitable.





Arm

Main businesses

- Design of semiconductor intellectual property and related technologies
- Sale of software tools and provision of related services

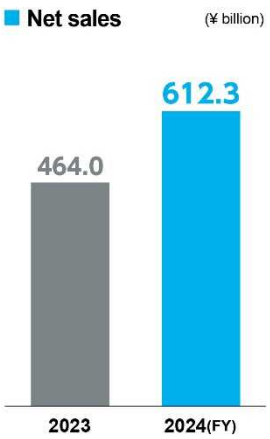
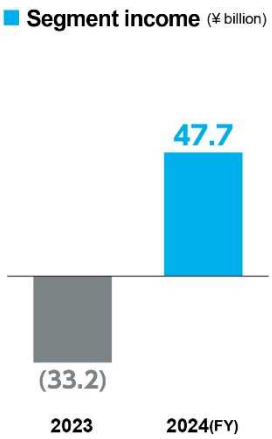
In FY2024, net sales increased by 32.0% year on year to a record high of ¥612.3 billion, and segment income improved by ¥80.9 billion year on year to a profit of ¥47.7 billion. The increase in net sales was driven by increased adoption of Arm's latest technologies, which deliver higher royalty revenue per chip, market share gains in multiple markets, and revenue from high-value and long-term licensing deals signed with major technology companies. The increase in net sales more than offset higher costs associated with factors such as increased engineering headcount, resulting in improved segment income.





3) Sustainability

Our vision for a better world — Help shape the next 300 years for our future generations and the planet

SBG has always remained true to its philosophy: Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone. This philosophy embodies our commitment to sustainability. Guided by the philosophy, the Group drives the information revolution forward and aims for sustainable, medium- to long-term growth. At the same time, we strive to realize various visions — such as autonomous driving for safer roads and remote learning for educational equality — thereby contributing to solving global challenges and realizing sustainability on a global scale.

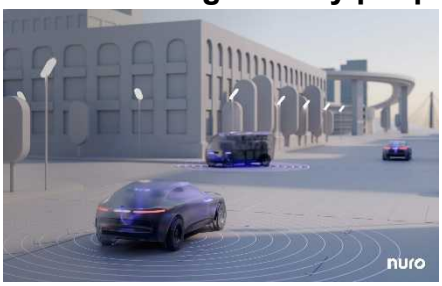
Autonomous driving for safer roads	Remote learning for educational equality	More creativity at work
Using AI to prevent disease	An enriched life for all	Technological solutions to environmental issues

Contribution to solving sustainability challenges through our investment business

Through our investment businesses such as SoftBank Vision Funds, the Group invests in a number of companies that contribute to solving sustainability challenges.

Nuro

Transforming the way people move through autonomous solutions



Nuro is a leading AI robotics company developing fully autonomous vehicles that bring the power of artificial intelligence into the physical world — transforming how people and goods move through everyday life. Through partnerships with automotive and mobility companies, Nuro is reimagining personal vehicles, ride-hailing services, and commercial fleets. Its technology aims to create safer streets, reduce emissions, and give people back valuable time — advancing a more sustainable and efficient transportation future.

Neuron23

AI-driven precision medicine to treat complex neurological and autoimmune diseases

Neuron23 is a clinical-stage biotechnology company developing precision medicines for genetically defined neurological and immunological diseases. By combining insights from human genetics with a state-of-the-art drug discovery and biomarker platform, the company is pioneering targeted therapies for some of the most challenging and debilitating conditions. Neuron23 leverages cutting-edge machine learning and artificial intelligence to accelerate therapeutic development — advancing a new generation of treatments with the potential to transform patient outcomes.

Terabase Energy

Developing next-generation solar construction solutions to accelerate decarbonization

Terabase Energy is a solar technology company focused on transforming utility-scale solar projects with integrated solutions that reduce costs, improve quality, and unlock scalability. Its platform supports the full lifecycle of a solar farm project — from planning and design to construction and operations. The company has pioneered a “field factory prefab” approach, combining prefabrication and automation to streamline construction in the field. This next-generation method accelerates the deployment of large-scale solar projects and contributes meaningfully to global decarbonization efforts.

Helion Energy

Pursuing reliable, carbon-free energy at scale from fusion

Helion Energy is a fusion power company developing revolutionary technology to generate clean, abundant energy. Its mission is to solve one of humanity’s biggest challenges: delivering sustainable, carbon-free power at scale to meet rising global energy demand and combat climate change. Helion’s novel approach to fusion directly converts fusion energy into electricity — bypassing the traditional, inefficient steam cycle used in conventional power generation. This breakthrough has the potential to transform the global energy system and accelerate the transition to a carbon-free future.

4) Capital expenditure

During FY2024, the Group incurred capital expenditures to expand businesses such as the SoftBank segment.

The breakdown of the capital expenditure by segment is as follows.

Name of segment	Amount invested (¥ million)
Investment Business of Holding Companies	254
SoftBank Vision Funds	1,007
SoftBank	898,220
Arm	72,498
Others	95,158
Total	1,067,137

(Notes)
1. Amounts indicate the amount of assets accepted.
2. The amounts of capital expenditure do not include consumption taxes.
3. The amounts of capital expenditure include the purchase of property and equipment, right-of-use assets, intangible assets, and investments in long-term prepaid expenses associated with equipment.

The breakdown of major capital expenditure is as follows.

SoftBank

- Base station facilities
- Switching facilities
- Network facilities
- Servers and network-related equipment
- AI computing infrastructure and AI data centers

5) Financing activities

The amount of interest-bearing debt* of the Group decreased by ¥2,561.2 billion in FY2024.

At SBG, interest-bearing debt increased by ¥1,798.3 billion, primarily due to an increase in borrowings and the issuance of yen-denominated straight corporate bonds. On the other hand, at its wholly-owned subsidiaries that conduct financing activities, interest-bearing debt decreased by ¥3,981.4 billion primarily due to a decrease in financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by prepaid forward contracts resulting from the settlement of prepaid forward sales contracts using self-held listed shares. As for other consolidated subsidiaries, interest-bearing debt decreased by ¥378.1 billion, due mainly to the repayment of borrowings by SoftBank Corp. and PayPay Card Corporation.

The overview of main activities are as follows.

(1) Borrowings

The amount of borrowings by the Group from financial institutions increased by ¥1,036.1 billion in FY2024. Major changes in the outstanding balance of borrowings at the Group are as follows:

Company name	Description	Details
SoftBank Group Corp.	Increase by ¥1,312.4 billion	New term loan borrowings and execution of borrowings under a credit line facility, etc.
SoftBank Corp.	Decrease by ¥380.9 billion	Repayment of short-term borrowings and increase in long-term borrowings
Moonlight Finance GK	Increase by ¥297.2 billion	Increased borrowings using self-held shares
SBE Global, LP	Increase by ¥219.5 billion	Recognition of borrowings due to consolidation
PayPay Card Corporation	Decrease by ¥131.3 billion	Repayment of borrowings
Fortress Investment Group LLC	Decrease by ¥125.5 billion	Derecognition due to exclusion from the scope of consolidation

(Note) Interest-bearing debt excludes deposits in banking business and lease liabilities.

Status of arrangement and execution of a term loan, borrowings under credit lines, and refinancing of a hybrid loan by SoftBank Group Corp.

In September 2024, SBG arranged and took out a term loan of $2.9 billion from a group of financial institutions. In addition, upon the expiration of the term of an existing credit line facility, a new one was executed between SBG and a group of financial institutions in September 2024 containing a yen tranche of up to ¥35.6 billion and a foreign currency tranche of up to $5.465 billion. As of the end of FY2024, the full amount of the credit line facility had been drawn. In addition, in November 2024, SBG refinanced the hybrid loan (borrowing amount: ¥84.0 billion) taken out in 2017 with a bigger hybrid loan (borrowing amount: ¥135.0 billion).

Repayment of borrowings by SoftBank Corp.

SoftBank Corp. repaid a part of its short-term borrowings, while arranging and taking out new long-term borrowings from a group of financial institutions.

Increase in borrowings by Moonlight Finance GK

In February 2025, Moonlight Finance GK refinanced its borrowings using the SoftBank Corp. shares it held, increasing the amount from ¥500.0 billion to ¥800.0 billion.

Recognition of borrowings due to consolidation of SBE Global, LP

As a result of consolidating SBE Global, LP in July 2024, borrowings subject to consolidation have increased.

(2) Corporate bonds

Total outstanding balance of corporate bonds for FY2024 increased by ¥691.5 billion. While the amounts of corporate bonds increased by ¥520.9 billion and ¥195.5 billion at SBG and SoftBank Corp., respectively, it decreased by ¥24.9 billion at LY Corporation.

Major issuance and redemption of corporate bonds by the Group are as follows:

SoftBank Group Corp.

(Yen-denominated straight corporate bonds)

In FY2024, SBG issued yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥1 trillion and redeemed yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥450.0 billion at maturity. This was the factor for the total outstanding balance of yen-denominated straight corporate bonds to increase by ¥550.0 billion in face value.

In addition to refinancing, the new issuance of corporate bonds was executed to fund the installment for the acquisition of Arm shares from SoftBank Vision Fund 1 in August 2023.

Date of transaction	Transaction	Bond	Issue value
April 25, 2024	New issuance	60th Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond	¥30.0 billion
April 25, 2024	New issuance	61st Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond	¥50.0 billion
April 25, 2024	New issuance	62nd Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond	¥20.0 billion
June 12, 2024	Redemption at maturity	54th Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond	¥40.0 billion
June 14, 2024	Redemption at maturity	53rd Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond (Nickname: Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS Bond)	¥410.0 billion
June 14, 2024	New issuance	63rd Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond (Nickname: Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS Bond)	¥550.0 billion
December 11, 2024	New issuance	64th Unsecured Straight Corporate Bond (Nickname: Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS Bond)	¥350.0 billion

(Foreign currency-denominated straight bonds)

The total outstanding balance of foreign currency-denominated straight corporate bonds in face value decreased by ¥26.3 billion in yen terms in FY2024 due to the following factors and the stronger yen.

Date of transaction	Transaction	Bond	Issue value
July 6, 2024	Redemption at maturity	Euro-denominated Senior Notes due 2024	€638 million
July 8, 2024	Early redemption	Dollar-denominated Senior Notes due 2024	$767 million
July 8, 2024	New issuance	Dollar-denominated Senior Notes due 2029	$400 million
July 8, 2024	New issuance	Dollar-denominated Senior Notes due 2031	$500 million
July 8, 2024	New issuance	Euro-denominated Senior Notes due 2029	€450 million
July 8, 2024	New issuance	Euro-denominated Senior Notes due 2032	€450 million
January 6, 2025	Redemption at maturity	Dollar-denominated Senior Notes due 2025	$449 million

SoftBank Corp. and LY Corporation

SoftBank Corp. issued yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥206.0 billion in face value and redeemed yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥10.0 billion in face value at maturity in FY2024. In addition, in October 2024, SoftBank Corp. issued bond-type class shares of a total of ¥200.0 billion in face value. As a result, ¥200.0 billion was recorded as non-controlling interests in SBG's consolidated financial statements.

LY Corporation issued yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥50.0 billion in face value and redeemed yen-denominated straight corporate bonds of a total of ¥75.0 billion in face value at maturity in FY2024.

(3) Financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by prepaid forward contracts

In FY2024, due to the physical settlement of a portion of prepaid forward sales contracts using Alibaba shares, financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by prepaid forward contracts amounting to $24.83 billion (equivalent to ¥3,799.1 billion) were derecognized. In addition, financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by prepaid forward contracts decreased by $2.85 billion (equivalent to ¥432.2 billion) as a result of the cash settlement of all prepaid forward sales contracts using T-Mobile shares. Primarily due to these factors, financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by prepaid forward contracts of wholly-owned subsidiaries that conduct financing activities decreased by ¥4,174.7 billion.

6) Status of transfer of business, absorption by corporate split-up or establishment by corporate split-up

Not applicable.

7) Status of acquisition of business of other companies

Not applicable.

8) Status of succession of rights and obligations regarding other corporate business through merger by absorption or absorption by corporate split-up

Not applicable.

9) Status of holding of shares of other companies and acquisition and disposition of stock acquisition rights

On August 1, 2024, SBG and Tempus AI, Inc. jointly established SB TEMPUS Corp.

10) Other important matters related to the status of the Group

(1) On March 19, 2025, SBG entered into an agreement with Ampere Computing Holdings LLC ("Ampere") and certain of its equity holders to acquire all equity interests of Ampere through one of SBG's subsidiaries (the "Transaction")*. After the completion of the Transaction, Ampere is expected to be consolidated by SBG.

(2) On March 31, 2025, SBG entered into an agreement with OpenAI Global, LLC ("OpenAI Global") and its affiliates to make follow-on investments of up to $40.0 billion in OpenAI Global (the "Transaction").

As part of the Transaction, the first closing was executed on April 15, 2025, completing a $10.0 billion investment in OpenAI Global. Of this amount, $1.5 billion was syndicated out to co-investors, and the remaining $8.5 billion was invested by SVF2. Based on the agreement, an additional $1.0 billion may be syndicated out to co-investors during the 90 days after the first closing.

At the second closing of the Transaction scheduled for December 2025, the investment amount will be either up to $30.0 billion or $10.0 billion depending on whether certain conditions are met by OpenAI Global.

Of the total investment amount of the Transaction, the amount that can be syndicated out to co-investors is up to $10.0 billion. If the investment amount at the second closing is $10.0 billion, no syndication will be conducted at that closing.

(Note) The Transaction is subject to regulatory approval and other conditions, and is expected to be completed in late 2025.

11) Important management issues

From April to December 2024, global equity markets generally trended upward, supported by the initiation of interest rate cuts by the U.S. and European central banks and the continued resilience of the U.S. economy. Notably, the Nasdaq Composite Index and the S&P 500 Index delivered strong performance, driven by favorable earnings from major technology companies and the appreciation of semiconductor-related stocks. The broader market uptrend was further underpinned by growing demand for generative AI technologies. In January 2025, the Trump administration was inaugurated in the U.S. While initial expectations for tax cuts and deregulation briefly lifted equities, sentiment shifted after the late-January announcement by DeepSeek, an emerging Chinese AI company, of an advanced, low-cost AI model. This development raised concerns over the potential erosion of large U.S. technology companies' competitive advantage and the outlook for demand for cutting-edge AI semiconductors, prompting a sharp, though temporary, decline in the share prices of major U.S. technology and semiconductor companies. Conversely, DeepSeek's emergence elevated market expectations for China's technology sector, driving up related stock prices. Toward the end of March 2025, U.S. equity markets continued to trend downward, amid growing concerns over persistent inflation and increased uncertainty around trade policy, including tariffs. In contrast, equity markets in other regions, including Germany, the U.K., and Hong Kong, remained firm through the January–March quarter, highlighting regional divergences.

In the global venture capital market, while total investment volume in 2024 remained well below the 2021 peak, capital flows into AI-related companies were exceptionally robust, reaching a record 37% of total investment.[*1] In the global initial public offering (IPO) market for 2024, although activity in China remained subdued, the U.S. showed signs of recovery and India continued to perform strongly, underscoring divergence in IPO activity across countries. In the U.S. technology sector, several large-scale IPOs in 2024 contributed to optimism for a broader market rebound. However, following the Trump administration's announcement of "reciprocal tariffs" in April 2025, caution around the U.S. economic outlook increased, prompting a more measured stance among companies regarding IPO timing.

In this business environment, the Group is focused on implementing the following measures, 1-3, to maximize NAV (Net Asset Value: calculated as equity value of holdings – adjusted net interest-bearing debt[*2]) over the medium to long term. Furthermore, the Group considers Arm, SVF, and SoftBank Corp. top-priority assets, as they account for a significant share of SBG's equity value of holdings. Each is implementing the following measures, 4-6, to increase its equity value.

*1 Source: State of Venture 2024 Report, CB Insights

*2 Both the equity value of holdings and adjusted net interest-bearing debt exclude amounts to be settled at maturity or borrowings that are part of asset-backed financing. In addition, the calculation of adjusted net interest-bearing debt excludes, from SBG's consolidated figures, interest-bearing debt and cash and cash equivalents, etc. (including investments in bonds) attributable to entities managed on a self-financing basis, such as the listed subsidiaries SoftBank Corp. (including its subsidiaries) and Arm, as well as SVF1, SVF2, and the LatAm Funds.

1. Increasing the value of existing investments and executing new investments

In FY2024, although NAV reached a record high at the end of June 2024, it declined toward fiscal year-end, primarily due to a drop in Arm's share price amid a broader downturn in the U.S. equity market. As a result, year-end NAV fell below the level recorded at the end of the previous fiscal year. While short-term market volatility is inevitable, the Group's current portfolio, with Arm at its core, spans a wide range of investments, from the hardware layer that supports AI evolution to the application layer that leverages AI. This diversified positioning provides a strong foundation to capture structural transformations driven by AI-led innovation. Leveraging this strength, the Group is accelerating initiatives to maximize the value of existing investments while continuing to actively pursue new investments in high-growth AI-related companies.

Existing investees Arm and SoftBank Corp. are both expected to steadily execute the growth strategies outlined below, in alignment with the Group's corporate philosophy of "Information Revolution—Happiness for everyone," thereby contributing to the enhancement of the value of SBG's equity holdings. As for SVF, the Group anticipates a steady flow of IPOs and subsequent exits from portfolio companies as the IPO market fully reopens. SVF is also expected to continue exploring divestment opportunities with strategic buyers and other institutional asset managers.

For new investments, the Group rigorously vets opportunities aligned with its AI investment theme, leveraging funds recovered from exits. Strategic investments that offer added value through deep management involvement are expected to be made by SBG or its wholly owned subsidiaries, while other investments are to be channeled through SVF.

As part of new AI-related initiatives, in January 2025, SBG announced the "Stargate Project" to build AI infrastructure in the U.S. for OpenAI Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, "OpenAI"). In February 2025, the Group also announced a partnership with OpenAI to develop and commercialize a cutting-edge enterprise AI solution, "Cristal intelligence."[*3] Furthermore, in March 2025, SBG reached an agreement with OpenAI to make a follow-on investment of up to USD 40 billion in OpenAI Global, LLC, OpenAI Inc.'s for-profit subsidiary. After accounting for the USD 10 billion planned to be syndicated to co-investors, the Group's effective investment amount is expected to be up to USD 30 billion. Also in March 2025, SBG agreed with Ampere Computing Holdings LLC—a U.S.-based semiconductor design company specializing in high-performance, energy-efficient, and sustainable AI computing based on the Arm compute platform—and certain of its equity holders, to acquire 100% of its equity interest.

*3 "Cristal intelligence" is a provisional name and not the official designation.

2. Adhering to financial policy

SBG's financial policy is to manage its LTV (Loan-to-Value: calculated as adjusted net interest-bearing debt ÷ equity value of holdings,[*2] i.e., the ratio of liabilities to holding assets) below 25% in normal market conditions, with an upper threshold of 35% even in times of emergency, while securing a cash position sufficient to cover bond redemptions for at least the next two years. In FY2024, the Group actively invested in AI-related companies, resulting in an increase in LTV and a decrease in cash position at year-end compared to the previous fiscal year-end. However, both remained within the parameters of the stated financial policy.

In FY2025, SBG expects adjusted net interest-bearing debt to increase as it moves forward with the AI-related initiatives outlined in "1. Increasing the value of existing investments and executing new investments," financing part of the required capital through means such as bank borrowings and bond issuances. Furthermore, since Arm's share price—a core component of SBG's equity value of holdings—is sensitive to fluctuations in the U.S. equity market, there is a possibility of significant variation depending on market conditions. Nevertheless, SBG's financial policy remains unchanged. It will continue to manage its financial position appropriately by monitoring investment opportunities and capital market trends, while also utilizing asset-backed financing as necessary.

3. Promoting sustainability

The Group believes that promoting sustainability in its corporate activities is essential for achieving both the sustainable development of society and the Group's medium- to long-term growth. With this perspective, the Group has identified risks and opportunities related to sustainability, and is actively engaged in mitigating these risks while capitalizing on the opportunities.

The Group has identified key sustainability issues (materiality) that require priority attention. Among these, it has set three high-priority areas: (1) Responsible AI, (2) Climate Change, and (3) Human Capital. For each area, the Group has set specific goals and action plans and is continuously implementing initiatives while monitoring their progress.

4. Arm: Powering the future of AI

Arm is a global leader in the development of semiconductor technology and the Group believes that it is defining the future of computing at a time when semiconductor technology has become one of the world's most critical resources. Arm's processor technology is the world's most widely licensed and deployed semiconductor design of its kind and is used in virtually all smartphones, the majority of tablets and digital TVs, and a significant proportion of all chips with embedded processors.

As the foundational architecture for more than 310 billion digital devices globally, Arm delivers efficiency without compromising performance and provides a consistent, supported, and security-backed foundation for running current and future AI workloads everywhere—from cloud to edge and endpoint. The Group believes that Arm is the AI compute platform the world will rely on.

The current advancements and widespread adoption of AI technologies, including generative AI and large language models, are significantly boosting demand for Arm's technology. Many AI algorithms are computationally intensive, requiring high performance CPUs to deliver quick responses to queries. While much of today's AI processing occurs in the cloud, the shift toward edge AI[*4] is well underway. In edge devices, such as smartphones and cars, data is processed in real time and underscores the critical importance of high-performance while maintaining energy efficiency. This trend towards edge computing[*4] makes Arm's energy efficient CPUs especially suited for powering AI applications, positioning Arm as a key player in the AI technology landscape. Accelerated edge AI inference runs best on Arm.

*4 Edge computing is a computing method that processes data close to the data source at the periphery of the network—this includes user-side 'endpoint' devices, such as a smartphone or security camera, as well as local 'edge' servers. Unlike cloud computing, which relies on central data centers, edge computing minimizes unnecessary data transmission by processing data locally. This reduces latency, or communication delays, and decreases the load on the network. The adaptation of edge computing principles to AI technology is referred to as edge AI.

To achieve sustainable long-term growth, Arm focuses on maintaining or gaining share in all target markets, increasing the royalty revenue received per chip, and enhancing its software ecosystem, as detailed below.

i. Maintaining or gaining market share

Arm holds a strong position in the mobile application processor market, with a greater than 99% market share. Arm's strategy is to broaden its market share in sectors including the automotive, cloud server, and PC markets. Growing demand for Arm's technology is driven by the accelerated investment by its customers who strive to develop high-performance and energy-efficient chips that are essential for powering future AI algorithms. Arm's diverse compute technology portfolio is designed to meet the unique requirements of each market. Furthermore, Arm's subscription-based licensing model provides customers with broader access to its technologies in exchange for a higher licensing fee, reflecting a flexible business approach that supports Arm's vision for sustained market share growth. By supplying the essential semiconductor IP components for the next generation of computing devices, Arm underscores its commitment to being at the forefront of technological innovation.

ii. Increasing royalty revenue per chip

The rapid evolution of AI is driving a demand for energy-efficient chips with higher performance and more complex designs. Arm's latest generation technology, Armv9, along with integrated compute subsystems (CSS) that combine multiple Arm IPs, are seeing significant adoption, especially in high-end smartphones and servers. CSS combines Arm's CPUs with other on-chip technologies, and is pre-integrated and pre-verified to work on a leading foundry manufacturing process. CSS allows customers to design chips more easily and quickly, reducing time to market. Arm charges higher royalty per chip for advanced technologies like Armv9 and CSS, and is focusing on the promotion and expansion of these technologies to secure consistent royalty-driven revenue growth over the medium to long term.

iii. Ecosystem enhancement

Arm's growth is underpinned by an ecosystem comprised of more than 20 million engineers who develop software for Arm-based products. The success of a CPU largely depends on the wide availability of compatible software, as programs and applications are optimized for the underlying CPU architecture. For more than three decades, Arm has been dedicated to building and nurturing its ecosystem, providing software engineers with access to the tools and libraries needed to efficiently develop their programs and applications for Arm-based chips. Arm continues to invest in the ecosystem needed for AI to run everywhere on Arm.

5. SVF: Maximizing investment returns

SVF1, SVF2, and LatAm Funds are designed to invest in high-growth-potential technology companies primarily leveraging AI. The wholly owned subsidiaries of SBG that manage each fund (SB Investment Advisers (UK) Limited for SVF1, and SB Global Advisers Limited for SVF2 and LatAm Funds; collectively, the "Fund Management Subsidiaries") aim to maximize returns over the lifecycle of each fund through the following initiatives:

i. Medium- to Long-Term Management of Large-Scale Capital

SVF1, SVF2, and LatAm Funds are private capital investment vehicles with substantial capital commitments and management horizons of over a decade since their inception. SVF1, which has completed its investment period and entered the divestment phase, is focused on maximizing returns through the optimal monetization of its assets ahead of its scheduled termination in November 2029.[*5] Meanwhile, SVF2 and LatAm Funds, both still in their investment periods, aim to generate medium- to long-term returns through October 2032,[*5] by diversifying investments across geographies, sectors, and technologies to navigate public market volatility, while flexibly deploying capital in high-priority areas under the AI investment theme.

*5 Each Fund Management Subsidiary retains up to two one-year extension options.

ii. Enhancing the value of portfolio companies

The Fund Management Subsidiaries seek to maximize the equity value of SVF's holdings by identifying companies within the portfolio that have significant equity value or the potential for enhancement and supporting their growth through a range of strategic support and network connections. For example, they seek to identify and execute opportunities to accelerate the profitability and growth of portfolio companies by establishing partnerships and collaborations across the Group's greater ecosystem, including its portfolio companies and partners. They also provide growth-oriented portfolio company leaders with guidance for cross-border business expansion, profitability improvement, and monitor the governance structures to support sustained growth.

iii. Realizing investment through optimal exit strategies

The Fund Management Subsidiaries implement disciplined approaches to selectively exit assets in a timely and appropriate manner, aiming to maximize returns and ultimately make distributions to limited partners, including SBG. Funds may exit portfolio company investments through acquisitions by strategic buyers, secondary share sales to other institutional asset managers, or via public market listings. For public portfolio companies, the Fund Management Subsidiaries have a mechanism in place to systematically sell the funds' shareholdings while prudently assessing the company's performance against the investment case, market environment, and share price trends. Moreover, these funds may procure asset-backed financing for distributions to limited partners, optimizing the timing of sales to maximize returns.

In FY2024, a total of five portfolio companies across all funds went public, bringing the total number of IPOs since the inception of SVF to 55. As SVF are long-term investment vehicles, the Fund Management Subsidiaries aim to maximize returns from a medium- to long-term perspective, minimizing the impact of short-term market fluctuations.

iv. Building an appropriate management system

Creating a strong organization, especially attracting and retaining top talent, is critical to the reproducibility of investment successes and the sustained growth of the funds. The Fund Management Subsidiaries are run by senior leadership with extensive experience in investment banking and venture capital. To date, they have built and continue to improve an organizational structure with investment, operating, capital, functional, and management teams that match the needs and scale of global operations and portfolio management responsibilities. By taking a team approach with a group of experts, the Fund Management Subsidiaries aim to accumulate and share institutional knowledge to achieve sustained growth for each fund.

6. SoftBank Corp.: Executing the Beyond Carrier strategy

Changes in people's lifestyles, such as remote work, online shopping, and growing use of contactless payment, which were driven by the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the worsening labor shortage have made the digitalization of companies and government essential. The Group believes that digitalization will become a driving force that will transform Japan's society in the future, by facilitating improvement in productivity and the creation of innovation, and furthermore that the emergence of generative AI, which can generate a variety of content such as text, images, and programming code, will accelerate the speed of this transformation.

In this environment, under its Beyond Carrier growth strategy, SoftBank Corp., which is responsible for the Group's domestic operations, will strive to spur sustainable growth of its core telecommunications business, as it goes beyond the confines of telecommunications carriers and proactively expand its business in various fields of the information and technology sector, with the aim of maximizing its corporate value. Specifically, SoftBank Corp. is working to (1) drive further growth in the telecommunications business, (2) expand the DX/solution business in the enterprise business, (3) drive growth of the Media & EC (e-commerce) business, (4) drive growth of the financial business, (5) develop and expand new business fields, and (6) streamline costs.

In terms of its financial strategy, SoftBank Corp. believes that primary free cash flow[*6] is a key performance indicator. By steadily generating primary free cash flow, it aims to maintain robust shareholder returns while continuing to invest in growth. Furthermore, it seeks to maintain a sound financial position and pursue highly capital-efficient management with appropriate financial leverage.

LY Corporation, a core company in the Media & EC business, received administrative guidance from the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications in March and April 2024 and recommendations and guidance from the Personal Information Protection Commission in March 2024 concerning the leakage of information due to unauthorized access, which was announced in November 2023. In response, the company has been submitting regular reports to both authorities since April 2024. LY Corporation recognizes the seriousness of the incident, which undermined trust in its role as a platform operator with a large user base, and is implementing measures to prevent recurrence. As the parent company, SoftBank Corp. is reinforcing its security governance through regular risk assessments and strengthened emergency communication frameworks.

*6 Primary free cash flow is a measure calculated by adding back the amounts spent as long-term growth investments to adjusted free cash flow (excluding LY Corporation group, PayPay Corporation, etc.). Adjusted free cash flow (excluding LY Corporation group, PayPay Corporation, etc.) = free cash flow + (proceeds from the securitization of installment sales receivables – repayments thereof) – free cash flow of LY Corporation group, PayPay Corporation, etc. + other items such as dividends received from A Holdings Corporation and investment in PayPay Securities Corporation. "LY Corporation group, PayPay Corporation, etc." refers to A Holdings Corporation, LY Corporation and its subsidiaries (LY Corporation group), B Holdings Corporation, PayPay Corporation, PayPay Card Corporation, PayPay Securities Corporation, etc. Long-term growth investments include investments in AI computing infrastructure, AI data centers, and Cubic Telecom Ltd.

7. Mr. Soichiro Uno retired from the position of Director (Audit & Supervisory Committee Member) of Dream Incubator Inc. on June 17, 2024.

2) Amount of compensation paid to Board Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

(1) Matters involving the policy on deciding executive compensation and the associated method of calculation

a. Overview of the executive compensation system

In order to realize the corporate philosophy of “Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone,” the executive compensation policy of SBG is decided by a resolution of the Board of Directors, accounting for the societal and relative status of each officer, as well as the degree of their respective contributions to SBG, while referring to compensation survey results conducted by professional organizations so that the system provides compensation that is reasonably competitive and attracts global talent that share the same aspirations. Individual amount of compensation is determined pursuant to the procedure described in “e. Organization and procedures for deciding executive compensation.”

For Board Directors whose main duties are serving as officers of subsidiaries and the Group companies, compensation is determined by respecting the compensation policy of each company based on the “Cluster of No.1 Strategy” to grow together as the synergy group, and such compensation is paid by subsidiaries and the Group companies.

b. Components of the executive compensation

Total compensation paid to Board Directors (excluding External Board Directors) comprises basic compensation, which is fixed compensation and performance-based compensation, which changes depending on the performance. The performance-based compensation comprises cash bonuses as an incentive for short-term performance and stock compensation (non-monetary compensation) as an incentive to improve our enterprise value over the mid-to-long term, and their proportion is determined individually.

The compensation for External Board Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members consists exclusively of fixed compensation because they are independent of business execution.

c. Details of fixed compensation

Basic compensation is set as an annual amount on an individual basis and is paid in cash in monthly installments. The amount of compensation is decided on an individual basis, taking into consideration whether the officer is full-time or part-time, as well as their positions and the duties they are in charge of.

d. Details of performance-based compensation

Cash bonuses as an incentive for short-term performance are paid every fiscal year, as compensation for the execution of duties while executive officers are in office.

Stock compensation (non-monetary compensation) as an incentive to improve enterprise value over the mid-to-long term, is provided in the form of stock options using stock acquisition rights, with an aim to encourage executives to make continuous management effort, while sharing mutual interest with shareholders through share price increase. The contents of stock acquisition rights include normal stock options (with exercise price calculated based on the market price at the time of allotment) and share-based stock options (with exercise price of ¥1). The exercisable period will be set within the range of 10 years from the day following their allotment date.

The amount of cash bonuses and the number of stock acquisition rights allotted as stock compensation are decided based on multiple performance indicators for adequately rewarding the results achieved through business activities. Specifically, it is decided on an individual basis, and shall take into consideration individual performance based on each officer's ability and achievements, as well as company performance including consolidated results, the stock price and NAV (Net Asset Value).

[Key performance indicators as basis for performance-based compensation (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025)]

Net sales	Income before income taxes	Net income attributable to owners of the parent	Highest stock price
¥7,243,752 million	¥1,704,721 million	¥1,153,332 million	¥12,180

e. Organization and procedures for deciding executive compensation

Executive compensation is paid within the range of the aggregate amount of compensation approved by the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, subject to confirmation that it is in line with the SBG compensation policy stated in "a. Overview of the executive compensation system," and is found to be both rational and reasonable.

Regarding the range of the aggregate amount of compensation, the monetary compensation and the stock compensation paid to Board Directors were resolved at an amount not exceeding ¥5 billion per year, respectively, at the 38th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 20, 2018, and SBG was served by 12 Board Directors (including three External Directors) at the time of the resolution. The compensation paid to Audit & Supervisory Board Members was resolved at an amount not exceeding ¥160 million per year at the 41st Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 23, 2021, and SBG was served by four Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including four External Audit & Supervisory Board Members) at the time of the resolution.

Compensation of Board Directors for the relevant fiscal year has been decided by Chairman & CEO, Representative Director, Corporate Officer (Masayoshi Son), who is the founder of SBG responsible for the business results of SBG, based on the deliberations of the Nominating & Compensation Committee, a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors, within the range of authority entrusted to him by the resolution of the Board of Directors following the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the previous fiscal year. The Nominating & Compensation Committee of SBG, which aims to ensure rationality and reasonableness in deciding compensation, shall have review of the proposed compensation from multiple viewpoints including the consistency with the SBG compensation policy and report back to the Board of Directors on its deliberation details. The Board of Directors believes that the deliberations are in line with the SBG compensation policy.

To ensure independence, compensation of the Audit & Supervisory Board Members for the relevant fiscal year shall be decided by the consultation among the Audit & Supervisory Board Members, after the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the previous fiscal year.

(2) Total amount of compensation paid by each title

Title	Number of people	Subtotals for each type of compensation (¥ million)			Total amount of compensation (¥ million)
		Fixed compensation (Basic compensation)	Performance-based compensation (Bonus)	Others
Board Directors (excluding External Board Directors)	4 people	222	504	1	727
External Board Directors	5 people	198	-	-	198
Audit & Supervisory Board Members (excluding External Audit & Supervisory Board Members)	-	-	-	-	-
External Audit & Supervisory Board Members	4 people	90	-	-	90
Total	13 people	510	504	1	1,015

(Note) Aside from the above, there was no compensation paid to External Officers as Board Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members from the subsidiaries of SBG for this fiscal year.

(3) Total consolidated compensation paid to those whose total consolidated compensation is ¥100 million or more

Name	Amount of consolidated compensation (¥ million)	Title	Company name	Subtotals for each type of compensation (¥ million)
				Basic compensation	Bonus	Share-based payment	Others
Masayoshi Son	100	Board Director	SoftBank Group Corp.	12	88	-	-
Yoshimitsu Goto	501	Board Director	SoftBank Group Corp.	84	416	-	1
Ken Miyauchi	105	Board Director	SoftBank Group Corp.	30	-	-	-
			SoftBank Corp.	48	-	27	-
Rene Haas	4,904	Board Director	SoftBank Group Corp.	96	-	-	-
			Arm Limited	206	435	4,164	3

(Notes) 1. Only Board Directors whose total consolidated compensation and other compensation during their tenure is ¥100 million or more.
2. Company name and subtotals for each type of compensation are stated based on the compensation agreements between each Board Director and the Group.
3. Mr. Ken Miyauchi retired from the position of Director of SoftBank Corp. on June 20, 2024. Basic compensation includes amount of compensation as Special Advisor of SoftBank Corp. after retirement from the position of its Director.

3) Description of limited liability agreement

SBG and each of its non-executive Board Directors Masami Iijima, Yutaka Matsuo, Keiko Erikawa, Kenneth A. Siegel, and David Chao and its Audit & Supervisory Board Members have concluded a contract to limit liability for damage stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 423 of the Companies Act in accordance with Paragraph 1, Article 427 of the Companies Act.

The amount of limit of liability for damage is stipulated in the relevant contract as ¥10 million or the minimum amount of limit of liability that the relevant laws and regulations stipulate, whichever is higher.

4) Description of directors and officers liability insurance contract

SBG has concluded a directors and officers liability insurance (D&O insurance) contract, as stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 430-3 of the Companies Act, with Board Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board Members, Executive Officers, employees in managerial positions, and others of SBG and some of its subsidiaries as the insured.

The insurance contract covers damages caused as a result of the insured assuming liability regarding the execution of their duties or receiving claims pertaining to the pursuit of such liability. However, the policy does include certain exemption clauses, such as no compensation being given for liability attributable to acts in violation of laws or regulations that were carried out with full knowledge of their illegality. The premiums are paid by SBG, including riders. Therefore, the insured do not bear the actual premiums.

5) Items on External Officers

1. Relationship with companies where External Officers hold a significant concurrent position

SBG has transactions including legal/advisory engagement with Morrison & Foerster Gaikokuho Jimu Bengoshi Jimusho and Morrison & Foerster LLP, where Board Director Kenneth A. Siegel holds a significant concurrent position.

SBG has made limited partner investments in the funds managed by DCM Ventures, where Board Director David Chao holds a significant concurrent position. However, this capital contribution is extremely immaterial, accounting for less than 2% of the total amount managed by DCM Ventures.

SBG has transactions including legal/advisory engagement with Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu, where Audit & Supervisory Board Member Soichiro Uno holds a significant concurrent position.

2. Relationship with specific parties such as major business partners

4 Status of Independent Auditor

1) Name

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC

2) Amount of remuneration to be paid

Amount of remuneration that SBG should pay in this fiscal year
a. Amount of remuneration for the services pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Certified Public Accountant Act	¥940 million
b. Amount of remuneration for the services in addition to the services pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Certified Public Accountant Act	¥106 million
Aggregate amount of cash and other profits to be paid by SBG and its subsidiaries	¥5,357 million

(Notes)
1. As the audit agreement between the Independent Auditor and SBG does not stipulate that the remuneration for auditing services be classified into remuneration for the audit based on the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and the remuneration for the audit based on the Companies Act, there is no classification practically between the two kinds of remuneration. Therefore, the amount described in a. is the aggregate amount of the aforementioned remuneration.
2. Description of services in addition to the services pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 2 of the Certified Public Accountant Act: Mainly preparation of comfort letters when issuing corporate bonds.
3. SBG's significant subsidiaries, Arm Holdings plc, SoftBank Vision Fund L.P., SoftBank Vision Fund II-2 L.P., and SBLA Latin America Fund LLC, are audited by audit firms that belong to the same network as SBG's auditor, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC.
4. The Audit & Supervisory Board, based on the "Practical Guidelines for Cooperation with Accounting Auditors" published by the Japan Audit & Supervisory Board Members Association, reviewed and examined the plan details of the audit conducted by the Independent Auditor, the performance status of accounting audit duties, and the basis for calculating remuneration estimates, and from the results, has given consent prescribed in Paragraph 1, Article 399 of the Companies Act for the remuneration paid to the Independent Auditor.

3) Decision-making policy of dismissal or not reappointing of Independent Auditor

The Independent Auditor may be dismissed by the Audit & Supervisory Board with unanimity of Audit & Supervisory Board Members when the Independent Auditor corresponds to any of Paragraph 1, Article 340 of the Companies Act.

Other than those cases above, the Audit & Supervisory Board shall submit a proposal on dismissal or not reappointing the Independent Auditor to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders when it is acknowledged that the execution of appropriate audit is difficult due to the occurrence of an event which impairs the qualification or independency of the Independent Auditor.

4) Description on limited liability agreement

Not applicable.

5 Overview of system to ensure appropriateness of the operations and its implementation status

The overview of the system to ensure appropriateness of the operations and its implementation status is made available on SBG's website (https://group.softbank/en/ir/investors/shareholders/2025), pursuant to the applicable laws and Article 14 of the Articles of Incorporation of SBG.

Opinion

Pursuant to the fourth paragraph of Article 444 of the Companies Act, we have audited the consolidated financial statements of SoftBank Group Corp. and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Group"), namely, the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated statement of changes in equity for the fiscal year from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025, and the related notes.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of March 31, 2025, and its consolidated financial performance for the year then ended in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Professional Ethics in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities as auditors. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' execution of duties relating to the design and operating effectiveness of the controls over the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Business Report and the accompanying supplemental schedules.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB.

Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' execution of duties relating to the design and operating effectiveness of the controls over the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment. In addition, we obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

- Obtain, when performing risk assessment procedures, an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate whether the overall presentation and disclosures of the consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting standards prescribed pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of the first paragraph of Article 120 of the Ordinance on Company Accounting that omit a part of the disclosures required under IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB, as well as the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

Interest Required to Be Disclosed by the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan

Our firm and its designated engagement partners do not have any interest in the Group which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan.

Opinion

Pursuant to the first item, second paragraph of Article 436 of the Companies Act, we have audited the non-consolidated financial statements of SoftBank Group Corp. (the "Company"), namely, the non-consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2025, and the non-consolidated statement of profit or loss and non-consolidated statement of changes in equity for the 45th fiscal year from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025, and the related notes and the accompanying supplemental schedules.

In our opinion, the accompanying non-consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of March 31, 2025, and its financial performance for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Non-consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Professional Ethics in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities as auditors. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' execution of duties relating to the design and operating effectiveness of the controls over the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Business Report and the accompanying supplemental schedules.

Our opinion on the non-consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the non-consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the non-consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board for the Non-consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the non-consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of non-consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the non-consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board are responsible for overseeing the Directors' execution of duties relating to the design and operating effectiveness of the controls over the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Non-consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the non-consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these non-consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the non-consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment. In addition, we obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

- Obtain, when performing risk assessment procedures, an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the non-consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate whether the overall presentation and disclosures of the non-consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, as well as the overall presentation, structure and content of the non-consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the non-consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with Audit & Supervisory Board members and the Audit & Supervisory Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Audit Report

With respect to the Directors' performance of their duties during the business year from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025, the Audit & Supervisory Board has prepared this Audit Report after deliberations, as unanimous opinion of all Audit & Supervisory Board members based on the Audit Report prepared by each Audit & Supervisory Board member, and hereby report as follows:

1. Method and Contents of Audit by Audit & Supervisory Board Members and the Audit & Supervisory Board

(1) The Audit & Supervisory Board has established the audit policies in this fiscal year, audit plan, etc. and received a report from each Audit & Supervisory Board member regarding the status of implementation of their audits and results thereof. In addition, the Audit & Supervisory Board has received reports from the Directors, etc. and the Independent Auditors regarding the status of performance of their duties, and requested explanations as necessary.

(2) In conformity with the Audit & Supervisory Board members auditing standards established by the Audit & Supervisory Board, and in accordance with the audit policies in this fiscal year, audit plan, etc., each Audit & Supervisory Board member endeavored to facilitate a mutual understanding with the Directors, the Internal Audit and other employees, etc., endeavored to collect information and maintain and improve the audit environment, and has conducted audit by the following methods.

(a) Each Audit & Supervisory Board member has attended the meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, received reports on the status of performance of duties from the Directors and other employees and requested explanations as necessary, examined important approval/decision documents, and inspected the status of the corporate affairs and assets. With respect to the major subsidiaries including overseas subsidiaries, each Audit & Supervisory Board member endeavored to facilitate a mutual understanding and exchanged information with the Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members, etc. of each subsidiary and received from subsidiaries reports on their respective business as necessary.

(b) Each Audit & Supervisory Board member received regular reports from Directors and employees concerning the architecture and implementation of (i) the contents of the Board of Directors' resolutions regarding the development and maintenance of the system to ensure that the Directors listed within the Business Report, during the performance of their duties, complied with all laws, regulations and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company and other systems that are set forth in Paragraphs 1 and 3, Article 100 of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act of Japan as being necessary for ensuring the appropriateness of the corporate affairs of corporate group consisting of a joint stock company (kabushiki kaisha) and its subsidiaries, and (ii) the systems (internal control systems) based on such resolutions, and requested further information as necessary, making remarks when appropriate.

(c) Each Audit & Supervisory Board member monitored and verified whether the Independent Auditors maintained its independence and properly conducted its audit, received a report from the Independent Auditors on the status of its performance of duties, and requested explanations as necessary. Each Audit & Supervisory Board member was notified by the Independent Auditors that it had established a "system to ensure that the performance of the duties of the Independent Auditors was properly conducted" (the matters listed in the items of Article 131 of the Ordinance on Accounting of Companies) in accordance with the "Quality Control Standards for Audits" (Business Accounting Council), and requested explanations as necessary.

Based on the above-described methods, each Audit & Supervisory Board member examined the Business Report and the accompanying supplemental schedules, and the consolidated financial statements (the consolidated statements of financial position, the consolidated statements of profit or loss, the consolidated statements of changes in equity, and notes to consolidated financial statements, which were prepared in accordance with the provision of the latter clause in the Paragraph 1, Article 120 of the Ordinance on Accounting of Companies that prescribes certain omissions of disclosure items required under the International Financial Reporting Standards) as well as, the non-consolidated financial statements (the balance sheet, the statement of profit or loss and statement of changes in equity, and notes to non-consolidated financial statements) and the accompanying supplemental schedules thereto, for the business year under consideration.

2. Results of Audit

(1) Results of Audit of Business Report, etc.
